Jitney Drivers Complain That Street Railway Is Operating Motor Busses Without Paying License.

George Hayden, city attorney, had an interesting little question checked up to him this morning by some of the litney drivers. They complained that the Topeka Street Railway Company is operating three litneys without the usual payment of a city license. They stated further that the three litneys do not carry state license tags but Mr. Hayden is not interested in that feature of the case.

The litneys referred to are being used by the Street Railway Company between Fourth and Lake streets and the Santa Fe depot for the convenience of passengers to and from Oakland. Since the use of the East Sixth street viaduet was discontinued it has been necessary to transfer passengers to the Oakland line in this manner. For a short time the passengers had to walk, then the street railway company went into the jitney business on a limited scale.

City Attorney Hayden is doubtful if the street railway company should be or can be required to pay a city license on these three cars. They are operated as a part of the street railway to connect up two lines and are not in the general litney business.

Democrats Will Try to Get a Cabinet Officer for Speaker at Their Annual Banquet,

An effort is being made to get William G. McAdoo, secretary of the United States treasury, to be the principal speaker at the Kansas Democratic banquet which will be held in Topeka February 22. The local conmittee on arrangements met this noon at the Commercial club and took the preliminary steps for the annual talkfest.

"We expect to get a member of the nual talkiest.

"We expect to get a member of the cabinet as the chief speaker," said Tom Lillard, secretary of the Democratic state banquet committee, this noon. "Of course we will have a number of prominent Kansas Democrats on the program."

The members of the committee in charge of the banquet are: Tom Lillard, F. E. Whitney, treasurer, George Young, George Coats and Otis Allen.

W. C. Lansdon, of Salina, is president of the state committee.

DINNER STORIES.

Mr. Picklelilly came home from hi Mr. Picklelilly came home from his club one morning about 5 o'clock. He entered his happy home, crept up the stairs softly, so as not to awaken his spouse, then felt for the switch to turn on the electric light. He could not find it, and in the darkness stumbled over a chair. "What's that?" came a voice from the bed. "Where in the deuce are the lights in this house?" snarled Pickelilly, trying to put on a bold face on the matter. "Lights!" creid Mrs. Picklelilly, scathingly. "Pull up the blinds!"

wares health failed and they went to Colorado where he died. July 3, 1311. Mrs. Ware returned to Kansas City and since then has spent most of her time there, making an occasional visit to a daughter in New York City. Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Ware and all are living. A son, Eugene Huntington Ware, has lived on one of the Ware farms near Fort Scott for several years. The daughters are Mrs. Frederick Harold Nies of New York City, Mrs. Ralph Nelson who lives in Idaho and Mrs. E. T. Baird of Kansas City.

Recently when Mrs. Ware was at the State Historical acciety she was asked to furnish the library with a written statement giving facts about her life. The society has such a statement concerning most of the prominent Kansas women. Mrs. Ware agreed to supply it some time this winter. That was three weeks ago. The probabilities are that several Topeka people who were friends of the Ware family will attend the funeral services.

An at-tempt will be made to get a bill rais-ing the levy through the next legisla-ture, it is said in political circles, and it is likely that the majority of the worried commissioners will endorse it. Expenses Are Higher.

Expenses Are Higher.

"The expenses of running counties in the state have gone up," said J. E. Larimer, county auditor of Shawnee this morning. "The Shawnee county audit for the month of November was one of the largest in the history of the county. It contained 27 statement pages more than it has for years. In all it amounted to $28.825."

Fred Nipps stated this morning that it was his honest belief that the commissioners would succeed in pulling Shawnee county out of the hole with the economy mensures. "We will make up a part of the deficit this year," he said.

The Shawnee county deficit amounts to about $23.000 in the general revenue fund.

It is p inted out that the legislature for the last several years has been unloading laws onto the countles and making no provisions for expenses other than the provision that the expenses be taken out of the general revenue funds.
